The Annual Fund is our concerted effort to increase awareness of our needs and promote broad-based giving in order to provide accessible Christian education with high quality academic programs at Calgary Christian School. Specifically, the Fund:

- Provides direct, unrestricted financial support to budgeted operating needs.
- Addresses the areas of greatest financial need each year.
- Helps keep Christian education at CCS accessible by keeping program fees reasonable.
- Supports faith development programming, extra-curricular activities, equipment, and special initiatives or projects

Thank you for your support of Calgary Christian School!
